Mr. Kerr was in favor of the appropriation of the lands for the improvement of the States, and of all the States. He thought that works of internal improvement were the bonds of our Union. But he could not discorn the merits of the enterprise to which a grant is now proposed to be made. The terms of the grant were too vague, and the beneficiaries too little known to the House.

Ten Thousand Copies in Ten Days.
Uncle Tom Eclipsed by the Lamplighter!
THE most extraordinary and Thrilling Tale of modern times. This is the universal testimony of the Newspaper Press, and the verdict of the Reading Public. We have been utterly unable to fill our orders, so great has been the demand for this GREAT AMERICAN ROMANCE.

The following are samples of the opinions of the Corps Editorial:

We have no hesitation in pronouncing The Lamplighter one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, that has lately appeared. We predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most successful of modern romances.—Daily Eve. Traveller, Baston.

For delicate and forcible delineation of character this work is hardly excelled.—Boston Journal. The Lamplighter will shed many a ray around fire sides and in hearths where now it may be there much of darkness and despair.—Daily Bee, Boston.

much of darkness and despair.—Daily Bee, Boston.

The life of Little Gerty, as portrayed in the Lamplighter, is as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickens. Few persons having commenced this work will be willing to put it aside until they have gone through. The author, whoever she may be, has no reason to withhold her name, as the book would do credit to any writer.—Daily Advertiser, Boston.

The Lamplighter teaches important truths, which cannot be too frequently impressed upon the minds of all; and no one can study its instructive and fascinating pages, without being made better by its kindly influences. Its author has evidently a highly cultivated and refined, as well as an original and imaginative mind, and writes with the case, the classical correctness of diction, and that choice selection of terms, which indicate the good English scholar. In this respect, the Lamplighter is much superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin, whose inelegances meet us at every turn.—Boston Daily Atlas.

It is one of the most affecting and interesting tales

It is one of the most affecting and interesting tales that has ever issued from the American Press.—Daily Tribune, Providence, R. I.

This book develops a variety of characters, some of them as deeply affecting as the best sketches of Dickons. Little Gerty, Blind Emily, the good Lamplighter himself, Willie Sullivan, and others, are drawn by no unskillful hand. We will not, however, forestall the reader's pleasure by a sketch of the story. It is a book which will be generally read, and we are sure it will not fail to give great pleasure to its readers.—Evening Transcript, Boston.

The author of the Lamplighter, whoever he or she may be, has struck a note which will find a response in the public heart. It is a book which is destined to become a great favorite with the reading public.—

qualled by any other, unless we may except Uncle om. It is a most intensely interesting and deeply fleeting work.—Massachusetts Life Boat. But we cannot multiply extracts. The voice of the odical press is unanimous.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS,

FORRIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good fastis of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser. for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in at the start all competition that can be offered in

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits a small, that we cannot and will not sell but for the cash or to customers who pay promptly. For those who purchase very largely, or to sell again, reductions will be made.

The public are cordially and most respectfully in rited to call at all times and examine our stock. PERRY & BROTHER, "Central Stores," Jan 2-d (Op. Centre Market,) Washington City GENCY FOR ALL THE MAGAZINES. AT SHILLINGTON'S BOOKSTORE

HENRY JANNEY, SHOE DEALER, and Fashionable Boot Maker, Pennsylvania Avenue, between Browns' Hotel and Seventh street, Washington. Jan 2—3rd

REMOVAL!

HENRY JANNEY'S Boot and Shoe Store and Manufactory, for the last ten years located on 8th street, near the General Post Office, was removed to Pennsylvania Avenue, setween Browns' Hotel and 7th street, where the proprietor has spared no pains or expense in fitting up an establishment commensurate with the great increase in the business of the house.

rate with the great increase in the business of the house.

The subscriber tenders his most cordial and grateful acknowledgments to his friends and patrons for their long-continued favors, and will be pleased to meet them in his new house.

I have a very well-assorted stock of Boots and Shoes, of French, New York, Eastern, and my own make, embracing every style and variety, to which invite the attention of members of Congress, and citizens generally.

HENRY JANNEY.

Penn. av., north side, between Browns' Hotel Jan. 2 and 7th st., third door from the latter.

From the United States Argus.

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality or workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found uniter the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of corps on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has combined beauty with comfort.

The mails were brought to the city

The latest news leaves no hopes of peace.
Extensive preparations are making for war. It is believed that Austria will eventually join the Western Powers.

The letter from the Czar to Napoleon was long and argumentative, but so offensive in its character, that Napoleon deems it proper to suppress its publication.

Carroll Spence, our Minister resident at Constantinople, arrived here on the 2d of February. On his arrival, he was serenaded by the Hungarian and Italian refugees.

A Jewish legion had been formed in Constantinople to assist the Turks.

The English and French leading papers say that all hopes of peace are ended, and that Napoleon was exasperated at the Czar's insulting reply.

The war preparations were very extensive.

JOHN P. JEWETT & COMPANY have in press, and will publish about the first of March, a work of extraordinary power and ability, one which will rank among the very best productions of American or oreign genius. It is entitled

THE LAMPLIGHTER.

That our own opinion of this remarkable book may not seem exaggerated, we publish the following arti-le, written by one of the editors of the Econing cle, written by one of the editors of the Evening Traveller:

"Messrs. J. P. Jewett & Co. have in press, and will shortly publish, a tale of deep interest, entitled 'The Lamplighter.' The scene is laid in Boston and immediate vicinity, and its author is believed to be a Bostonian, or a resident of this geighborhood. We accidentally fell in with some of the proof-shreets of the work, the other day, and, after reading a hundred or more pages, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it one of the most original, interesting, graphic, and affecting tales, thus far, that has lately appeared. It is quite equal, to say the least, to 'Wide, Wide World,' though not what would be called a religious novel. If the work is completed with the ability which is displayed in the first part of it—and we have no reason to doubt that it will be—we predict for it a sale and popularity equal to the most successful of modern romances, such as Uncle Tom alone excepted."—Evening Traveller, Jan. 27, 1854.

A beautiful Engraving in each Number.

The Living AGE has been abundantly honored by the approbation of the best judges; it has been pronounced to be sound and vigorous; various and entertaining; full of spirit and life; uniting the qualities which gratify the scholar, the philosopher, and the man of business, with those which recommend it to their wives and children. We shall now endeavor to add to these intrinsic excellences the greater attractions of Art, and, beginning with 1854, Every Number will contain an Impression from a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price a beautiful Steel Plate.

The 52 Plates a year will alone be worth the price of subscription.

This work is made up of the elaborate and stately essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticisms on postry, his keen political commentaries, highly wrought tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to literature, history, and common life, by the sagacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenaum, the busy and industrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the soher and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the military and naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's Ainsworth's, territy, New Monthly, Fracer's, Tail's Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrew wit and wisdom from Panch; and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

THE LIVING AGE is published every Saturday, by LITTELL, SON, & COMPANY, corner of Tremont and Bromfield streets, Boston. Price 12j cents a number, or six dollars a year in advance. Remittances for any period will be thankfully received and promptly attended to.
